SUBJECT No 93

Terminal tax on railway passengers at Nanjangud

Mr E Krishnappa Nanjangud Municipality

Summary of Representation—As the Nanjangud Municipality has no funds at its credit for the improvement of the town and the introduction of a drainage scheme, etc, the sanitary and other improvements of the town may be effected at Government cost and the Municipal Council permitted to levy a terminal tax on railway passengers to meet the annual maintenance charges of the Municipality

2 The file dealing with the question of improvement to the Nanjangud Town has been sent to the Chief Engr who's remarks may the return of the file be awaited

3 What was the reply sent to this representation Before that is known, we cannot say what action has to be taken In all such cases please refer to the reply sent

4 The Collector is requested to send us his reply early for the information of the Govt who alone can take any further action in the matter

5 This is an undiscussed local subject of October Session 1918 included in April Session Proceedings of 1919 & ordered to be taken as discussed, vide para 3 of GO No Lg 1307-137/@ dt 32-18-1, 23-1-19 Hence no reply of Govt in this subject
